By the President of the United States of america We & Proclamation Whereds a Treaty of Peace and Friendship was made and concluded on the twenty ninth day of June, one thousand fever hundred and muchy fix, between the Muited States of america and the breek nation of Indians: and whereas I have, by and with the advice & consent of the Senate, in due four ratified thefaid Freaty, under the proviso That nothing in the ", third and fourth articles of the said Treaty shall be construed " to affect duy claim of the State of Georgia to the right , of presemption in the land therein set apart for · military or trading posts, or to give to the Muited States, " without the consent of the said State, any right to the , foil or to the exclusive legislation over the fame or. " any other right than that of establishing, -" maintaining and exclusively governing mulitary " and trading posts within the moider territory " mentioned in the faid articles, as long as the " frontier of Georgia may require these & " establishments?" which Treaty is in the following four, viz

A Treaty of Leace and Friendship made and concluded between the President of the United States of America on the one part and behalf of the said States, and the undersigned Kings, Chiefs and Marriors of the breek nation of Indians, on the part of the said Nation.

The parties being desirous of establishing permanent peace and friendship between the United States and the said lower Nation, and the Citizens and Members thereof, and to remove the causes of War, by ascertaining their limits, and making other necessary just and the friendly arrangements. The President of the United States by Benjamin Hawkins, George Colymer and Andrew Pickens, Commissioners whom he hath constituted with powers for those purposes; by and with the advice and consent of the Senate: and the breek Nation of Indians, by the un=dersigned Kings, Chiefs and Warriors, respresenting the whole breek Nation, have agreed to the following Articles:

Article the 1st

The Treaty entered into at New York between the parties on the 7th day of August 1790, is and shall remain obligatory on the contracting parties, according to the terms of it, except as herein provided for.

Article the 2nd.

The boundary line from the lowerakee Mountain, to the head or source of the main South branch of the Oconee river, called by the white people applicationee, and by the Indians Tulapocka and down the middle of the same, shall be clearly ascertained and marked, at such time, and in such manner, as the President shall direct; and the Indians will on being informed of the determination of the President, send as many of their old we Chiefs as he may require, to see the line ascertained and marked.

Article the 3rd.

The President of the United States of America shall have full powers, whenever he may deem it advisable, to establish a trad= ing or military post on the South side of the Alatamaha, on the bluff about one mile above Beard's bluff, or any where from thence down the said river on the lands of the Indians, to garrison the fame with any part of the military force of the United States, to protect the post, and to prevent the violation of any of the provisions or regulations subsisting between the parties. And the Indians do hereby annex to the post aforesaid, a tract of land of five miles square, bordering one side on the river, which post and the lands lands annexed thereto are hereby Ceded to and shall be to the use, and under the Government of the United States of America.

Article the 4th.

As soon as the Tresident of the United States has determined on the time and manner of running the line from the burrahee Moun tain to the head or source of the main south branch of the Oconee, and notified the chiefs of the breek land of the a suitable number of persons on their part shall attend to see the same completed: and if the President should deem it proper then, to fix on any place or " places adjaining the river and on the Indian lands for military or trading posts, the breeks who attend there will concur in fixing the same, according to the wishes of the President. and to each post the In-= deans shall annex a tract of land of five miles square, bordering one side on the rever. and the said lands shall be to the use and under the government of the United States of America. Drovided always, that whenever any of the trading or military posts mentioned in this treaty shall in the opinion of the President of the United States of Ame= cica be no longer necessary for the purposes intended by this fession, the same shall revert to, and become a part of the Indian Lands.

Whenever the President of the United States of America, and the King of Spain, may deem it advisable to mark the boundaries which separate their Territories; the President shall give notice thereof to the breek bhiefs, who will furnish two principal Chiefs and twenty hunters to accompany the persons employed on this business, as hunters and guides from the bhacktaw country, to the head of It Mary's. The bhiefs shall receive each half a dollar per day, and the hunters one quarter of a dollar each per day and ammunition, and a rea = sonable value for the meat delivered by them for the use of the persons on this service.

Anticle the 6th.

The Treaties at Hopewell between the United States and the Chacktows and Chickas aws, and at Holston between the Cherokees and the United States mark the boundaries of those tribes of Indians. And the breek Nation do hereby relinquish all claims to any part of the Territory inhabited or claimed by the Citizens of the United States, in conformity with the said treaties.

Article the 1th.

The freek nation shall deliver as soon as practicable to the Superintendant of Indian affairs at fich place as he may direct all fitizens of the United States, white inhabitants and Megroes who are now prisoners in any part of the said nation; agreeable to the treaty at New York, and also all Citizens, white inhabitants, negroes and property taken fince the signing that Treaty. And if any such prisoners, negroes or property should not be delivered, on or before the first day of January next, the Governor of Georgia may empower three persons to repair to the said nation, in order to claim and receive such prisoners, negroes and property, under the direction of the President of the United States.

Article the oth.

In consideration of the friendly disposition of the freek nation towards the Government of the United States, evidenced by the stipulations in the present treaty, and particularly the leaving it in the discretion of the President to establish trading or military posts, on their lands: The Commissioners of the United States, on behalf of the said States, give to the said nation goods to the value of six thousand dollars, and stipulate to send to the Indian nation, two Blacksmiths with strikers, to be employed for the upper and lawer breeks, with the necessary tools.

All annimosities for past grievances shall henceforth cease, and the contracting parties will carry the foregoing treaty into full execution, with all good faith and sincerity. Provided nevertheless that persons now under arrest in the State of Georgia for a violation of the Freaty at New York, are not to be included in this amnesty; but are to abide the decision of Law.

Article the 10th

This Treaty shall take effect and be obligatory on the contracting parties, as soon as the same shall have been ratified by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Now therefore, to the end that the said treaty may be observed and performed with good faith on the part of the United States, I have ordered the fame to be published; and I do hereby enjoin and require all persons bearing office, civil or military, within the Minted States, and all others citizens or inhabitants thereof, or being within the fame, faithfully to observe and fulfil the said breaty, in all its parts.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed this twenty fourth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand fever humsed and minety fever, and of the Independence of the Minted States of America, the twenty first John Adams

By the President

Timothy Pichering, Secretary of State

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA In Senate, March the 2^d 1797.

The Senate proceeded to consider the Treaty made on behalf of the United States, with the Creek Indians. Whereupon,

RESOLVED, two thirds of the Senate concurring therein, that they do consent to and advise the President of the United States to ratify the Treaty of peace and friendship made and concluded at Colerain in the State of Georgia on the 29th of June 1796, between the President of the United States of America on the part and behalf of the said States and the Kings, Chiefs and Warriors of the Creek nation of Indians on the part of the said nation: PROVIDED AND ON CONDITION, that nothing in the third and fourth Articles of the said Treaty expressed in the words following (here the Articles) shall be construed to affect any claim of the State of Georgia to the right of preemption in the land therein set apart for military or trading posts; or to give to the United States without the consent of the said State, any right to the soil or to the exclusive legislation over the same, or any other right than that of establishing, maintaining and exclusively governing m military and trading posts within the Indian territory, mentioned in the said Articles, as long as the frontier of Georgia may require these establishments.

Attest,
